The Reginox Modena II. 1000.10 model from the Dutch company belongs to the category of ceramic sinks with an additional small bowl and drainer.

Design-wise, it is a very minimalist, simple, yet highly sought-after model at present. This ceramic sink fits into any interior, whether you have a minimally furnished kitchen at home, or on the contrary, you prefer a rustic and Provence-style kitchen. The kitchen sink is designed for intensive daily use and includes one large, deep basin, a smaller second compartment, and a spacious drainboard, which is ideal for multitasking in busy kitchens.

The ceramic sink offers a range of advantages: high resistance of ceramics to impact, high durability, resistance of ceramics to scratches, exceptionally high temperature resistance, hygienic safety, easy cleaning, colorfastness.
